

Customer Cards

Sales transactions are recorded against the Customer card in Business Central, creating accurate accounting for statements, reports and analysis.

See overview of standard Business Central Customers: Overview

- Create Customer Cards
- Create Customer Brand Cards

Create Customer Cards

Customer cards can be created from the Customer List, either by manually entering data in all required fields, or by applying a template.

Learn more here To Create a New Customer

Create Customer Brand Cards

Brands are linked to customers for an added level of transacting. Customer brands could have a different address, currency code or agency commission structure applied as required.